I am disgusted by your unprofessional conduct regarding the offer you made to me regarding a fifty dollar bonus. Also, the points that were awarded as part of my basket of Easter Reward Points. I am a loyal player and have never violated any of your terms or conditions. You continue to allow me to make deposits and the crypto bonuses are offered to me. I can only assume that you are selectively discriminating against me. I am posting this reply on LCB so everyone can read my remarks.
