Can I have somebody please call me because no one's returning any of my emails over days now and support will not help me because it's out of there level of understanding apparently and it's so easy unless you just don't want to see it. I'm going to attach proof of my purchase from the other day that has not been fulfilled by your company but instead has been denied yet my money was taken for the purchase. I have requested it over and over for the past several days through social media through email through chat and through support and I can't get a response from anybody. This is not hard I did the work here it is do the right thing please. Now my withdrawal is being denied solely through the fault of every Department who has failed to help me throughout all of my numerous requests over the past two days. I want this fixed ASAP and I want to file a complaint please.
